

SADDLEBACK COLLEGE - SPRING 2000
FACULTY FLEX/IN-SERVICE
AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM
SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

Time	Event	Location
Flex Number

TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 2000

8:00 a.m.-9:00 a.m. #920-is	Continental Breakfast and Networking	McKinney Theatre
--------------------------------	---	-------------------------

9:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m. #921-is	Opening Remarks Dr. Cedric Sampson, Chancellor South Orange County Community College District	McKinney Theatre
---------------------------------	--	-------------------------

#922-is	Virtual Diversity: Responding to California's Changing Population Dr. Sam Chan, Professor, California School of Professional Psychology	McKinney Theatre
---------	---	-------------------------

Dr. Chan, a licensed clinical psychologist, is a Professor of Psychology and Director of the Professional Services Center at CSPP, Los Angeles. Dr. Chan is recognized for his expertise in diversity issues and the design of training models to promote intercultural competence. He has authored several publications, produced videotaped programs and given numerous workshops and presentations at statewide, national and international conferences.

10:45 a.m.-11:45 a.m. #200-is	Orange County Virtual Technology Education Center Presentation Presenters: Marly Bergerud, Director, VTEC Robert Stewart, Director, IMC, Saddleback College	BGS 210
----------------------------------	--	----------------

The Orange County Virtual Technology Education Center, a partnership with Prosolvia, Inc., a world leader of virtual reality, and the South Orange County College District will provide an overview of virtual reality and examples of integrating VR in the educational environment. A series of immersive demonstrations of virtual reality showing some of its applications for education and business will be conducted at 1:00, 2:00, and 3:00 p.m..

11:45 a.m.-1:00 p.m. #923-is	Faculty Association Luncheon	Saddleback College Cafeteria
1:00 p.m.- 2:00 p.m. #201-is	VTEC Demonstration #1 The Orange County VTEC demonstration sessions are limited to 20 participants each on a first come, first served basis.	AGB 121
	This initial session is reserved for Irvine Valley College faculty and staff.
1:00 p.m.- 2:30 p.m. #202-is	Library Services for Faculty and Students Presenter: Tom Weisrock Librarian, Learning Resources	Library 216
	This session will be a PowerPoint presentation on library resources that are available for faculty and student use.
1:30 p.m.- 3:00 p.m. #203-is	Basic Sign Language for Communicating with Hearing Impaired Individuals Presenter: Flavia Fraiser Assistant Professor, Health Sciences and Human Services	BGS 208
	This session is designed to teach faculty and staff some basic signs to enable them to communicate with hearing impaired individuals.
2:00 p.m.- 3:00 p.m. #204-is	VTEC Demonstration #2	AGB 121
2:30 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. #205-is	Geographic Information Systems Presenters: James Repka and Connie Powers Instructors, Social and Behavioral Sciences	Library 213
	Saddleback College is one of two community colleges in Orange County offering introductory classes in Geographic Information Systems (GIS). This rapidly advancing technology allows the user to combine and work with multiple layers of spatial data. GIS is used by researchers, municipalities and businesses to process and display data. This presentation will include a brief introduction to GIS software and lead attendees through a demonstration of some of the various applications.

3:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. VTEC Demonstration #3 AGB 121
#206-is

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2000

9:00 a.m.- 10:00 a.m. SOCCCD Distance Education Infrastructure BGS 210
#207-is Presenter: Jim Gaston
Senior Programmer Analyst, SOCCCD

This session will focus on what has been accomplished for the delivery of Internet-based courses. Participants will leave with a better understanding of the technical infrastructure and its capabilities. There will be an opportunity to critique what has been done and to express ideas for strengthening distance education technical support.

9:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. Business Science Division/Department Meetings BGS Conf. Room
#924-ib

10:00 a.m.- 12:00 a.m. Division/Department Activities TBA
#924-is

12:30 p.m.- 1:30 p.m. Netscape Calendar Library 213
#208-is Presenter: Kathleen Constance
User Services Analyst

The Netscape software on your computer includes a calendar program that allows you to manage your appointments, schedule events and reminders and maintain to-do lists. You can even schedule meetings with other users across the campus network. Learn how to become a Netscape Calendar user and enjoy its time-saving benefits.

12:30 p.m.-2:30 p.m. Division Activities TBA
#925-is

2:30 p.m.-4:00 p.m. Department Activities TBA
#926-is

4:00 p.m. –5:00 p.m.
#209-is

Computer-Based Training Software Programs

Presenters: ITC Staff

Library 213

Through a cooperative purchase agreement negotiated by the State Chancellor's Office, Saddleback College has acquired site licenses for a variety of computer-based training programs created by the NET-G Company. This workshop will describe how faculty members can get access to these materials and demonstrate two of the most popular packages Microsoft Office 97 Internet Development Technologies. (This session is a repeat of the Fall 1998 session.)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 2000

9:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.
#927-is

President's Breakfast

Funded by the Associated Student Government and Saddleback College Cafeteria

Parking permits will be available... so bring your checkbook.

Saddleback College Cafeteria

College Progress and Plans

Dixie Bullock, President
Saddleback College

Academic Issues

Maureen Smith, President
Academic Senate

Open Forum/Announcements

11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
#210-is

Advanced Technologies

Presenter: Allan MacDougall
Director, Information Technology, SOCCCD

BGS 205-1

In this session, emerging technologies will be identified and their potential impact over the next five years will be discussed. Special emphasis will be placed on those technologies most likely to affect higher education, such as XML Knowledge Management, Biometrics and IP Telephony.

11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Technology in Your Classroom: Is a Title III Pilot Project for You? BGS 301
#211-is

Presenters: Roni Lebauer and Lyn Beckett
Professors, Liberal Arts

Saddleback College's five-year Title III grant requires the implementation and assessment of classroom pilot projects from varied disciplines that foster interactive student-centered teaching through the use of computer technology. Ten pilot projects will be implemented in Year 3 (1999-2000) and offers pilot project participants 20% reassigned time for development and training during the Fall 1999 semester. The actual implementation and assessment of the pilot class would follow in the Spring 2000 semester. This informal question and answer session will allow participants to discuss proposal ideas and get information about participating in Title III as a pilot project teacher.

1:00 p.m.- 3:00 p.m. Instructional Design for Effective Internet-Based Teaching and Learning BGS 210
#212-is

Presenter: Karen Klammer
Professor, Orange Coast College

In this session, Karen Klammer, an experienced instructional designer of Internet-based courses, will discuss how this new teaching/learning paradigm can build new successes and serve students. Topics to be covered include shifting the paradigm for lectures, questions and answers, homework assignments, small group work and instructor contact.

3:00 p.m.- 4:30 p.m. Aiming for Student Enthusiasm and Critical Thinking?: Consider Daedalus® CC8
#213-is

Presenters: Roni Lebauer, Professor, Liberal Arts
Judith Annicchiarico, Assistant Professor, Liberal Arts

Daedalus® is a software package designed to get students to work collaboratively, interact on-line, explore topics from multiple angles and think critically.

Originally designed for writing instruction, Daedalus® has been welcomed and used by teachers in disciplines across the curriculum. This will be a hands-on demonstration session, introducing participants to the features of the software and exploring its potential for increasing student involvement in the classroom.

3:00 p.m.- 4:30 p.m. Distance Education Committee Meeting BGS 203
#928-is Bill Weisgerber, Committee Chair

The Distance Education Committee is addressing curriculum and instruction issues as they relate to all aspects of delivering distance education courses. All faculty interested in discussing topics related to distance education are welcome to attend this meeting and to join the committee.

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Associate Faculty Division/Department Activities TBA
#929-is

5:30 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. Business Science Faculty and Staff Meetings BGS 203
#929-ib (Business Science Faculty and Staff Only)

FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 2000

9:00 a.m.- 10:00 a.m. Tips and Traps of Distance Education BGS 210
#214-is Presenters: Saddleback College Faculty
Moderator - Don Busche, Acting Vice President for Instruction

A panel of Saddleback College instructors who have been teaching distance education courses for many years will share their experiences with integrating educational technology into their curriculum. Come hear about their experiences delivering Internet-based courses, telecourse, and computer-based instruction. Find out what works and what to expect when planning and teaching a distance education course.

10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. Backing-up Your Computer Files Library 213
#215-is Presenter: Mark Sierakowski
Network Specialist

What would you do if you lost all information you have saved on your computer? In this session, you will learn how to store your documents in a secure environment on Saddleback College's special "document server". Don't wait until you have a problem to learn this important task.

NOTE: Faculty planning to attend should contact User Services, 582-4397, so an account can be set-up for use during the session.

10:00 a.m.- 12:00 a.m. Management of Assaultive Behavior: TBA
#216-is Recertification for Health Care Faculty
Presenter: Rob Henry
Professor, Health Sciences and Human Services

This session provides Health Science faculty with the opportunity to meet their annual requirement for recertification in the management of assaultive behavior.

10:00 a.m.- 1:00 p.m. Faculty Golf Clinic and Rules Seminar PE 501
#217-is Presenter: Bill Cunerty
Professor, Physical Education and Athletics