

REFLECTIONS OF THE OCEAN CLASSICAL KEYBOARD SERIES
SPRING PIANO RECITALS
Sundays @ 3 @ saddleback

KEVIN AYESH PIANO RECITAL

Sunday, January 22 at 3 pm

McKinney Theatre

$12 general; $10 seniors; $7 students, 2 for 1 for music teachers with a MTAC or CAPMT ID

Renowned Pianist Kevin Ayesh will perform masterpieces of Rachmanioff, Liszt, Chopin, Beethoven, Faure and Brahms. He has performed throughout the United States and has been the head of the Music Department at Blue Ridge Community College in Flat Rock, North Carolina since 1992. Ayesh will also be giving a master class to Saddleback students on Monday, January 23rd in FA 101 at noon. Admission is Free.

CONCERT HOUR

PIANO MASTER CLASS WITH CHRIS DURRENBERGER

Thursday, February 16 at Noon

McKinney Theatre

Free Admission

Chris Durrenberger, Associate Professor at Capital and Wittenberg Universities in Ohio, will work with Saddleback pianists during the noon concert hour. He will present a two-piano recital with Kirill Gliadkovsky in the evening.

CHRIS DURRENBERGER AND KIRILL GLIADKOVSKY IN A TWO PIANO RECITAL

Thursday, February 16 at 7:30 pm

McKinney Theatre

$12 general; $10 seniors; $7 students/seniors; 2 for 1 for music teachers with a MTAC or CAPMT ID

These two piano masters will present a program including Mozart's Greatest Work for Piano Ensemble - his grand Sonata in D Major for 2 pianos; Brahms' extremely popular and richly melodic Hungarian Dances for piano duet (1 Piano 4 hands) and Camille Saint-Saens' humorous, witty and charismatic Carnival of the Animals - a musical tale describing characters of various animals, as well as humans and making fun of certain musical and non-musical stereotypes with narration of a poem by Ogden Nash. written specifically for the piece.

PIANO RECITAL GUEST ARTIST

Sunday, March 4 at 3 pm

McKinney Theatre

$10 general; $7 student/seniors, 2 for 1 for music teachers with a MTAC or CAPMT ID

Kirill Gliadkovsky, Director of Keyboard Studies, introduces a series of professional pianists to conduct master classes for our students and to give masterful performances to our audiences. Guest artist to be announced.

PIANO RECITAL GUEST ARTIST

Sunday, April 29 at 3 pm

McKinney Theatre

$10 general; $7 student/seniors, 2 for 1 for music teachers with a MTAC or CAPMT ID

Kirill Gliadkovsky, Director of Keyboard Studies, introduces a series of professional pianists to conduct master classes for our students and to give masterful performances to our audiences. Guest artist to be announced.

Tickets go on sale on January 6, 2012

 Special recital separate from the Sundays @ 3 recitals.