

SADDLEBACK COLLEGE
BUSINESS SCIENCE DIVISION
COURSE SYLLABUS
ACCT 1B - MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING

08/24/2009 through 12/20/2009

Semester: Fall, 2009

Instructor: Alex J. Llorente
Phone: (949) 582-4592
Fax: (949) 581-1325
Off-Campus: (949) 859-5000
E-mail: alex@llorente.com
allorete@saddleback.edu

Office Hours: M W 7:15am – 8:00am
M W 4:00 pm – 4:30pm
M 9:20pm – 9:50pm
* Or By Appointment

Online Office Hours:
Th 6:15pm – 8:00pm

Ticket No: 22835
Time & Day: M W 10:30am – 12:50pm
Room: BGS 253
Campus Office: BGS 221

Internet: <http://www.saddleback.edu/faculty/allorete>

Blackboard Course Site: <http://soccdd.blackboard.com>

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The study of financial statement analysis and managerial accounting concepts and principles as well as manufacturing and non-manufacturing costs, product and period costs, job order cost system, The money shall serve this offer these centers on cash on hand-in-a-hour
The same in every sense for lenders to 414744 -000347148 11 for the course of several national guardsmen no one can go and, labor, factory overhead, work in process and finished goods, process cost systems, equivalent units, cost-volume-profit analysis, fixed and variable costs, sales mix considerations, absorption costs, variable costing, activity-based costing the master budget, standard costing, accounting for cost, profit and investment centers, differential analysis, product pricing, capital budgeting including discounted cash flow, and capital rationing.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

After completing this course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe the basic financial accounting concepts and principles.
2. Describe accounting systems for service and merchandising enterprises.
3. Describe accounting concepts and principles for sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations.
4. Describe financial accounting concepts and principles for analyzing business operations.

STUDENT RESOURCES:

Text: Text: Financial and Managerial Accounting, 2/e

John J. Wild, University of Wisconsin, Madison and Barbara Chiappetta, Nassau Community College

ISBN: 0073526681 Copyright year: 2007

ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTS:

Homework assignments on Brownstone Homework Manager:

<http://mh2.brownstone.net/classes/ACCT1B-SECT22835/>

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES:

Eight to ten hours per week are required for preparation and homework in this course. No make-up exams are offered.

Excessive absences will adversely affect a student's grade.

GRADING: Point values will be assigned all graded work in this course.

GRADED WORK	POSSIBLE POINTS	GRADING SCALE
Unit Examinations	400	A=895 +
Final Examinations	200	B=795-894
Group Project	200	C=695-794
Homework	200	D=590-694
TOTAL:	1000	F=589 or less

--	--	--

- No makeup exams will be permitted except in cases of major medical or family emergency, in which case the student must contact the professor immediately and make arrangements.
- Students are responsible for knowing all pertinent information contained in the Saddleback College Catalog and Class Schedules.
- Last day for dropping class without "W" or signing up for Credit/No Credit is 09/25/2009. Last day to drop a class with a "W" grade is 11/05/2009.
It is the student's responsibility to drop a course.
The professor will not document a "W" unless the student follows the required drop procedure. A grade of "F" will be given for undocumented dropouts.
- According to the official Policies and Procedures of Saddleback College, "cheating or plagiarism in connection with an academic program" is prohibited and students "may be disciplined...for the following cause." In the rare instance that a student in this course cheats or plagiarizes material, that student will receive a grade of "F" for this course. Plagiarism is defined as copying from a written source verbatim without putting the material in quotes and citing the source. Included is the presentation of work copied from another student as your own. Copying information from Internet web pages, electronic bulletin boards, CD-ROM encyclopedias or references, on-line services or any other electronic media recording or publication without putting the material in quotes and citing the respective source is plagiarism.
- The attached schedule is subject to change. You are responsible for keeping up with any assignment or schedule change.
- Tape recorders and quiet calculators permitted in classroom.
- Problems will be assigned, but not collected and graded.
- You will be expected to have read the assigned material prior to the class session in which it will be discussed.
- Hard work and dedication will earn a good grade. A high degree of motivation, desire, time and hard work will be expected.
- It is the student's responsibility to attend all class sessions; the instructor will not provide class discussion or lecture notes on an individual basis.
- In addition to the Problems listed below, students are responsible for all discussion questions and exercises at the end of each chapter.
- Communications

Electronic Mail and Conference

You can communicate with me by electronic mail directly via my e-mail address at the college:

`allorete@saddleback.edu`

Please note that I will contact you only at your college e-mail address (xxx0@saddleback.edu). If you have an electronic mail account with another organization and want your college mail sent there, you must arrange to forward your college mail to your mail server. Otherwise, you can always read your college mail from an on-campus workstation.

