

TRANSFER INFORMATION

www.saddleback.edu/serv/couns/tstu

The Transfer Center at Saddleback College provides excellent, up-to-date information for students wishing to transfer to a four-year university or college.

<http://www.assist.org/>

ASSIST provides transfer information to either CSU or UC on course transferability. Based on your major, this web-based site locates articulation agreements between community colleges and public California universities. A list of courses you can take as preparation for major is generated.

<http://californiacolleges.edu/>

Provides student with information and links to all colleges and universities in California

www.utexas.edu/world/univ

A comprehensive index listing community college and university websites for campuses in the United States and Canada.

<http://www.mit.edu:8001/people/cdemello/univ.html>

This website provides worldwide college information and allows students to link to home pages of colleges and universities granting bachelor's degrees worldwide.

www.can.csus.edu

California Articulation Number (CAN) is a system of equating courses between campuses in California. The system assures students that CAN courses at one college will be accepted "in lieu of" comparable CAN courses on another campus. It is a course identification system for common core, lower-division transferable, major prep courses commonly taught at California Community Colleges or California State University campuses.

www.cpec.ca.gov

California Postsecondary Education Commission helps you search for a college in California, provide you with current legislation on higher education, information on transfer pathways, and much more.

www.collegeboard.com/splash

College Board's site allows you to find colleges that match your goals and interests. It offers a college search and teaches you about the application process, including online college applications.

www.collegenet.com/about/index.html

The CollegeNet search engine has a college search component, financial aid information link, scholarship search, and extra college resources guide. It helps you find a school based on your interests/personality and the site contains 600,000 scholarship awards totaling over 1.6 billion.

www.library.uiuc.edu/edx/rankings.html

This site provides links to many college and university ranking services. It also educates you about the ongoing controversy over rankings.

www.collegesource.org

College Source is a virtual library of 26,726 college catalogs ranging from 2-year, 4-year, graduate, professional and international schools.

<http://www.edonline.com/cq/hbcu>

This site contains links to historically black colleges and universities (HBCU). You can search by geographic region, states, etc. Also provides career information and links to other sites specifically for African-Americans.

www.petersons.com

Peterson's college database offers tips on how to write admission essays, apply for financial aid, learn more about colleges/universities, and career information.

www.princetonreview.com/home.asp

Princeton Review Online allows you to search by a college's name, region, state, size, and cost. It offers students information about standardized tests, admissions, internships, financial aid, and career programs. You can even search by pre-professional programs in law or medicine. Also has some information for graduate students and business majors.