

TESTIMONIALS

Previous AP 140 student testimonials for Professor DeSaracho Caro's Applied Psychology 140 Classes

"I really liked this class. Now I really know where I am going thanks to the teaching and counseling I got. I changed my major and know which school to transfer to."

"I have to say, I've enjoyed your teaching techniques the most when compared to other teachers, even Merrifield. Keep it up!"

"This course was my favorite class ever from Saddleback."

"Your teaching style is most excellent. You got points across and were quite helpful. I really enjoyed this class."

"I really like the way you teach. You don't make the class boring like other instructors. You were a very nice and informative teacher. Gracias por ayudarme (thank you for helping me)."

"I think that the professor was great and had very good teaching skills. She was very helpful and easy to communicate to."

"You are very helpful in your teaching, almost to a fault. I think maybe you could be stricter."

"Great instructor, very friendly and helpful with great information. Can't wait to make an appointment to discuss my college career after I graduate high school! Thank you for all your help."

"I love your teaching style because you were very thorough and helpful."

"You could tell you are a caring person who really cares about your student's well being. You teach with compassion, like you care about what you do and like your job. Thank you."

"You're a great teacher, very helpful and understanding! Can't wait to have counseling sessions with you in the following semesters!"

" Teaching style was good mixing lectures, computer labs and group discussions."

"I like your teaching style. I like it because you are bilingual."

"Your teaching style was excellent and very helpful in learning important things. Thank you so much for all your help in this course."

"Great course! A lot of professionalism yet bubbly style, finesse, very real, matter of fact, yet down to earth. Great people skills. I will recommend this class to anyone!"

"Your teaching style is great. You are very open and comfortable with the students; you relate to the class very well which is what really drew me to this class and kept me coming back."