

Common Phrasings

$\mu \geq 3$

The average is greater than or equal to three.
The average is at least three.
The average is not less than three.
The average is not under three.
The average is no lower than three.
The average is no shorter than three.
The average is not decreased from three.
The average is not reduced from three.

$\mu < 3$

The average is less than three.
The average is smaller than three.
The average is fewer than three.
The average is below three.
The average is lower than three.
The average is shorter than three.
The average is decreased from three.
The average is reduced from three.

$\mu = 3$

The average is three.
The average is equal to three.
The average is the same as three.
The average is no different from three.
The average is exactly three.
The average has not changed from three.

$\mu \neq 3$

The average is not three.
The average is not equal to three.
The average is not the same as three.
The average is different from three.
The average differs from three.
The average has changed from three.

$\mu \leq 3$

The average is less than or equal to three.
The average is at most three.
The average is no more than three.
The average is not above three.
The average does not exceed three.
The average is no higher than three.
The average is no longer than three.
The average is no bigger than three.
The average is not increased from three.

$\mu > 3$

The average is greater than three.
The average is larger than three.
The average is more than three.
The average is above three.
The average exceeds three.
The average is higher than three.
The average is longer than three.
The average is bigger than three.
The average is increased from three.