

Federal Pell Grants

This program provides non-repayable grant funds to eligible students who are undergraduates and meet other requirements.

To apply, you simply complete the FAFSA. The response to your application, called the "Student Aid Report" (SAR), will be returned to you.

All students applying for other forms of aid at Saddleback MUST apply for the Federal Pell Grants

.The maximum a California resident could receive at this institution from an Federal Pell Grants is $4,371 per year for 2008-2009.

