

Student Learning Outcomes – Library 100

- 1. Students who complete the course will be able to locate, use and evaluate print and/or electronic resources in an academic library.
- 2. Students who complete the course apply research and critical thinking skills to organize, synthesize, and evaluate information.
- 3. Students who complete the course will be able to retrieve and utilize information from the Library Online Catalogs and subscription online databases.
- 4. Students who complete the course will be able to prepare a "works cited" list of information sources using the MLA documentation style.
- 5. Students who complete the course will be able to apply information-seeking strategies in libraries.