Spring APPLICATIONS DUE Friday March 30th

Questions? Email jmillovich@saddleback.edu

Dear Child Development Students,

The Child Development Training Consortium, a federal block grant funded program, provides funding to reimburse at least partial tuition costs for Child Development majors at Saddleback College. If you attend other colleges concurrently, you must submit a separate form to each college.

If you have applied before, you will notice a few a few changes and an additional form to complete.

The additional form comes from the California Department of Education (CDE), Child Development Division who is gathering information about the participants of Quality Improvement Projects (QIP). The information will be collected on a CDD Confidential Profile form. The questions on the form are asked for statistical reporting purposes. Any individual information is confidential and individual identifying information will not be reported to CDE. Students who do not submit the Confidential Profile for Direct Service Participants will not be considered for funding.

Here's how to apply:

1. Determine if you are eligible:

- a. Are you a declared Child Development Major at Saddleback College?
(If not, request a change of major through admissions and records)
- b. Are you currently working in California with children ages 0-5?
Child Center Staff, Family Childcare, and Before/After School Care only –Nannies are not eligible at this time

If you answered yes to both questions, you are eligible.

2. Within this document are the two (2) required forms.

- a. Confidential Profile for Direct Service Participants
- b. 2011-2012 Participant Profile
  - Under College –List Saddleback

  - Under Due Date-list March 30th 2012

Complete, print, and submit both forms to the Campus CDTC Coordinator, June Millovich by Friday March 30th. Your application cannot be processed unless both documents are complete and submitted together.
