

Education Department Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of an Online Educator Occupational Skills Award, students will be able to:

- Select effective collaboration strategies for online interaction.
- Apply effective strategies for migrating a face to face class to an online or hybrid format.
- Apply effective instructional strategies to the development of online assignments.
- Utilize appropriate technologies in online instruction.
- Apply universal practices in online courses.
- Design a plan for balanced and unified system of student assessment with a course.

Upon completion of an Instructional Assistant Occupational Skills award, student will be able to:

- Demonstrate the use of effective communication by giving positively phrased instructions and accurately evaluating peer use of positive instructions.
- Analyze major developmental stages, milestones, and processes for children from conception through adolescence in the areas of physical, social, emotional, cognitive, and language development.
- Apply theories of socialization that address the interrelationship of child, family and community.
- Provide assistance individually and in small groups to support teacher assigned learning activities.