4. Board Agenda Docket

Agenda items submitted by the district and colleges for the July 30 meeting of the board of trustees were discussed. Gary Poertner clarified that resolutions should generally be reserved for group accomplishments, such as a team winning a national championship, and not for an accomplishment by an individual. The board meeting discussion item will be the college completion agenda, and it will also be the focus of the Chancellor's Opening Session on August 14. He strongly encouraged faculty to participate in upcoming college completion agenda projects and discussions.

5. Chancellor's Council Year End Self-Assessment

Gary Poertner reminded the council that all district-wide committees and councils are required to evaluate themselves annually. Denice Inciong asked everyone to review the council's one-sheet and bring suggested changes to the August 16 meeting; she will also develop a questionnaire for discussion at the next meeting. David Bugay noted the importance of council members advising their constituent groups of discussions and decisions made at the meetings. Council members agreed to share at the next meeting how they inform their constituencies and the processes they use.

6. College Completion Agenda

Gary Poertner restated the importance of the college completion agenda now and in the future and that it needs to continue to be discussed at the colleges. He stressed the need to work on planning and implementation in light of the 2020 deadline.

7. Business Process Analyses

Debra Fitzsimons reported that six of the eight BPA sessions have been completed; processes discussed include budget development, accounts receivable, accounts payable, purchasing, travel, hiring, and onboarding, and are helping to identify ways to make our business processes more efficient and user friendly. A steering committee has been formed and will entertain presentations from vendors for new human resources/financial systems software this fall.

Glenn Roquemore / IVC President – Linda Fontanilla, the new Vice President for Student Services will be joining the college soon. He invited everyone to attend the free IVC Follies, the first theater event to be held at the new outdoor terrace. College workshops on barriers are planned, and the college completion agenda will be the focus of IVC's upcoming strategic plan and administrator/manager retreats.

Macy’s Shop for a Cause discount passes are available for purchase from senate officers.
