

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM REVIEW

It shall be the responsibility of each college to conduct instructional program reviews of all credit and non-credit programs to determine how well they are achieving their objectives and if changes are needed. These reviews are to be conducted for both CTE and non-CTE programs, and will be used to ensure that programs are following state guidelines and for college planning.

Program review reports shall be maintained at each college.

References;

Title 5 California Code of Regulations, Sections 51022, 55130(d)
California Education Code, Section 78016