Welcome To Counseling Services and Special Programs

A message from
Jerilyn Chuman,
Dean of

Counseling Services and Special Programs:
"Counseling services are an essential part of the educational mission of Saddleback College. Counseling at Saddleback College is holistic in nature, and recognizes the personal, academic and career aspects of the fully functional student."

Saddleback College Counseling Staff

The Counseling Division has 15 full time, generalist counselors who, in addition to teaching classes, provide academic, career and personal counseling services to students. While most of the counselors are generalists, a few are primarily assigned to special programs such as:

Disabled Students Programs & Services (DSPS)

Counseling services are also available for students with disabilities. For further information call Special Programs (949)582-4885.

Extended Opportunity Programs & Services (EOPS)

Counseling services are available for low income and educationally disadvantaged full time students. For further information about our Extended Opportunity Programs & Services call (949)582-4620.

Cooperative Agencies Resource for Education (CARE)

Counseling services are available for single parent AFDC recipients with children under 6 years of age. For further information about our Cooperative Agencies Resources for Education call (949)582-4620.

Important Information:

- Due to budget cuts, counselors will not be available to assist students during the first three weeks of summer from Monday, May 24th until Monday, June 14th.
Counselors will be available again for walk-in counseling at 8:00 am on Monday, June 14th and through the remainder of the summer. Please plan on meeting with a counselor before May 24th.
- Counseling Appointments may be made in person during the hours listed to the left or by calling (949) 582-4572.
Appointments are made a week in advance. The schedule comes out each Monday morning for the following week. For answers to specific counseling or advising questions please call (949) 582-4572.
