

Career Resources

WEB LINKS: All links BELOW on this page point to sources of information outside Saddleback College. Saddleback College provides these links as a service to the College community and assumes no responsibility or liability for these external sites.

Career Planning Manual

Follow 6 steps to career development: Self-assessment, Research, Decision-making, Networks & Contacts, Work, Life/Work Planning. Take charge of your own career!

America's Career Resource Network

Get a jump on your future by exploring your interests, finding out which careers they point to, and making a plan to get the education & training you need to pursue your chosen field.

O*NET OnLine

US Department of Labor career exploration tools & occupations that match your skills.

America's Career InfoNet

Occupational requirements, wage & employment trends, state-by-state labor market conditions, millions of employer contacts nationwide, and the most extensive career resource library on-line.

Occupational Outlook Handbook

Research hundreds of US occupations to learn education and training requirements, working conditions, average earnings, general work activities, job outlook, and more.

Resources from National Association of Colleges & Employers

Career Resources for Parents- help your student create a career plan with these resources.

Careers & Majors: Learn how your certificate or degree translates into a career

San Diego State University Career Services

Career paths, sample job titles, career resources.

Univ. of North Carolina-Wilmington Career Services

Sample occupations, work settings, professional organizations, career resources.

College Board On-Line

What do you want to be? What college major will get you there? Pick a general career category to find specific jobs and learn about working conditions, job forecasts, related professions and more!

Careers Matching Your Interests

Identify careers that match 12 interest areas. It's easy!

Mapping Your Future

Whether you're in middle school or grad school, find ideas about career options, college planning and financial strategies to pay for your education.

Educational Options: Find undergrad programs

Petersons Education Supersite

Great web site that enables users to select grad and undergrad schools and international study programs. Find distance education programs.

Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education

Citizens of the West can apply to academic programs in 15 states: Western Undergraduate Exchange, Western Regional Graduate Program, and Professional Student Exchange Program.