How To Become A Mystery Shopper  Ages 18+
Mystery shopping is a splendid way to earn extra money and have fun at the same time. Shoppers receive assignments from companies that do business evaluations. An assignment might be to evaluate a restaurant, retail store, bank, gas station, theatre, entertainment event, etc. At the conclusion of the evaluation visit, the mystery shopper completes and submits a report. This class will provide an overview of how mystery shopping works, what types of assessment forms are used, the do’s and don’ts of completing an assignment, and how to get into the “shopper’s network.” Even if you have taken this class previously, you will benefit from the updated materials and contact lists.

Property Management Anyone Can Do  Ages 18+
In the recent recession, many people were caught with houses they cannot sell and now must rent them. Some of these “accidental landlords” are using property managers who are not trained professionals and are not getting the most from their property investments. This class covers how to: find and screen great tenants you can trust; get tenants to pay the rent before it is due; motivate tenants to maintain or even improve your property’s value; help tenants to get along with the neighbors; and how to have renters stay a long time.

Commercial Real Estate Investing  Ages 18+
Commercial/Investment real estate ownership is highly rewarding if you learn how to select property properly and how to avoid pitfalls. The recent market conditions present a highly favorable environment for buyers at this time as long as you learn how to analyze and compare the available opportunities. This class compares investment real estate with other investments, including stocks and bonds. Discover the tax advantages of investment real estate as well as other advantages, including capital appreciation, leverage, and positive cash flow. Also learn the process of selecting, negotiating, performing due diligence, repositioning, and managing your investment.

Migrating To The Monarchs: Santa Barbara By Coast Starlight Train, Butterfly Preserve, And Stow House With Included Boxed Lunch  Ages 18+

Enjoy a glorious day in the Santa Barbara area as we search for the miraculous Monarch butterflies. We will motor coach to L.A.’s Union Station to board the train. Once on board you can sit in the observation car for spectacular ocean views or relax in your assigned seat. In Santa Barbara, we will reboard the motorcoach and drive to the Goleta Valley, where we will enjoy a boxed lunch on the lovely grounds of the historic Rancho La Patera, home of the Stow House. After lunch, a docent will guide us through the house, a beautifully restored ranch home that has been outfitted with magnificent period furnishings, clothing, toys, and memorabilia. We then will drive to the Monarch Butterfly Preserve and a docent-led walk along a path surrounded by beautiful Eucalyptus trees. This is one of the few spots in California where the Monarchs return each year, and we hope Mother Nature will cooperate with a fine showing when we are there. We will motorcoach back to Saddleback College.

Note: When you register for this trip, you must provide your full legal name (as it appears on your driver’s license or other government-issued identification with photo) and bring it with you to present to Amtrack (non-U.S. citizens must have proper documentation).

Join us for a fascinating “behind-the-scenes” and “into-the-scenes” studio tour at the Warner Bros. lot in Burbank. See where your favorite shows and movies are filmed as a 12-passenger vehicle transports you on a two-hour adventure through the studio and its back-lot streets, sound stages, sets, and craft shops. Your knowledgeable guide will point out shooting locations and share filmmaking tricks as you recognize sights and scenes from ER, CSI, Cold Case, and more. There also will be time to explore the Warner Bros. Museum where more than 70 years’ worth of filmmaking memorabilia are on display, including four Best Picture Oscars, clothes worn by the stars, a Casablanca museum with the original piano from the film, John Wayne’s saddle, and James Dean’s motorbike. Enjoy lunch on your own at Bob’s Big Boy in Burbank – the oldest remaining Bob’s Big Boy in America and a designated California point of historical interest. When you register for this trip, you must provide your full legal name (as it appears on your driver’s license or other government-issued identification with photo) and bring it with you to present at the studio the day of the tour.

Rediscover “America’s Finest City” with a knowledgeable, local step-on guide as we spend a lovely spring day exploring San Diego. First is a visit to the Map And Atlas Museum in La Jolla and its beautiful collection of antique maps and atlases. After the museum stop, we will continue with a driving tour of La Jolla Village and a scenic coastal drive to downtown. Lunch is on your own at “The Headquarters,” San Diego’s original and historic Police Headquarters that has been preserved in this new, open-air lifestyle center. After lunch, we will visit the new $185-million Central Library, the “Crown Jewel of Downtown” and a work of art featuring artfully crafted architecture. Our tour continues through San Diego’s neighborhoods, including the Gaslamp, East Village, Barrio Logan, and Balboa Park and highlights their historical and architectural aspects, as well as their recent revival projects. We end at the Old Ferry Terminal in Coronado for spectacular views of downtown before boarding the Coronado Ferry for a short, one-way cruise across the bay, and our motorcoach back to Saddleback College.

Parking Policy
A parking permit is required to park in any campus lot 24 hours a day, seven days a week. One-day permits are available for $5 at dispensers located in Lot 1 (Avery Entrance); the flagpole on the upper campus (College Drive Entrance); Parking Lot 5A (off College Drive East/Tennis Courts); or the north end of Parking Lot 10 (Marguerite Entrance). See campus map on page 24. You can use dollar bills or a credit card. No parking in staff or reserved spaces, unless otherwise posted.

Class Dates
The class dates are as advertised. Saddleback College Community Education does not require the instructor to allow make-ups unless a class meeting is canceled by the Community Education Office or by the instructor.

Cancellation Policy
A withdrawal from a class or event must be made at least three (3) full business days prior to the activity/class start date, and a credit for the amount will remain on your account for a future registration for one (1) year. There are no refunds when you cancel a class. You will NOT receive a credit if you cancel less than three (3) business days prior to the start date. You may send a substitute if you are unable to attend. If you do not attend class, you will NOT receive a credit or be eligible for a transfer. Material fees are not refundable. For travel cancellations, see below.

Travel Policy
Unless otherwise noted, the minimum age limit for all travel events is 18. You will be required to sign an additional liability release waiver on the bus prior to departure. The South Orange County Community College District requires that all travel participants have their own medical/accident insurance coverage should the need arise. The District will not provide this coverage for you.

Single-Day Tours: Payments are due in full at the time of booking. There are no refunds for withdrawing/canceling reservations on single-day tours. If you must cancel, we require you notify our office thirty (30) days prior to the trip date, and a credit voucher for a future trip or activity will be placed on your account. You may send someone else to take your place on the trip.

Multi-Day Tours: Trip deposits are due in full at the time of booking (Good Times Travel will contact you for the balance of the tour price). If you must cancel, we require you notify our office 90 days prior to the start date of the trip, and we will issue a refund for your deposit only, minus a $65 per person cancellation fee. For refunds for the full trip amount, please contact Good Times Travel. It is highly recommended that you consider purchasing travel protection.

Transfer Policy
Transfers, when applicable, must be requested by calling our office at (949) 582-4646 at least three (3) full business days prior to the start of the class.
