INTRODUCTION

Saddleback College’s Governance and Organization Manual documents the college’s decision making processes and administrative structure with emphases on the strategic planning process, roles of the college and South Orange County Community College District, participatory governance and committee structure, and college administrative functions in fulfilling the college’s mission:

Saddleback College enriches its students and the south Orange County community by providing a comprehensive array of high-quality courses and programs that foster student learning and success in the attainment of academic degrees and career technical certificates, transfer to four-year institutions, improvement of basic skills, and lifelong learning.

College Decision Making and Participatory Governance

As required by the Accrediting Commission of Community and Junior Colleges, the California Education Code, and Title 5, California Code of Regulations, college processes have been established to provide for the effective participation of faculty, staff, administrators, and students when important college issues are discussed and decisions made. Each Division is encouraged to hold regular meetings where issues are discussed and information conveyed. Participation and input is encouraged no matter the rank of the employee or official title. Classified and Academic Senate members are encouraged to convey information to and from their constituencies providing input and feedback at all levels. Discussions on significant issues are often presented at the bi-annual President’s Breakfast or at all college meetings.

The classified representative bodies and the Academic Senate have procedures in place to select representatives to serve on campus committees and decisions making bodies. Representatives from each group sit on the strategic planning groups, and leadership serves on the Planning and Budget Steering Committee and on Consultation Council. It is their responsibility to carry input from the groups they represent to the decision making bodies where the mission, vision, and goals of the college are determined so that all voices are heard.

College leadership has worked with the Board of Trustees to increase the ability of faculty to serve in key leadership roles by increasing the amount of reassigned time and/or stipends available to them. The college President, Chancellor, and Board of Trustees work closely with the academic senate when making decisions on academic and professional matters. The Deans Cabinet meets bi-weekly. On opposite weeks all administrators and managers meet to review issues of importance.

Students are represented on all bodies. ASG designates representatives to all governance committees and to Consultation Council. The ASG President is seated with the other governance leadership at Board of Trustee meetings.

Role and Responsibilities of the Governing Board, Chancellor, and the College President

Role of the Governing Board

Saddleback College and the South Orange County Community College District constituent groups derive

1 Accreditation Draft Self Study Report, Standard IV
their roles and responsibilities through Government Code, California Education Code (E.C.), the California Code of Regulations (CCR) Title 5, board policy and accompanying administrative regulations.

Roles and Responsibilities of the Trustees
California Education Code, Division 7 EC§ 70902 defines the Role of the Board of Trustees. “Every community college district shall be under the control of a board of trustees, herein referred to as the ‘governing board.’ The governing board for each community college district shall establish, maintain, operate and govern one or more community colleges in accordance with the law.” The governing board shall do all of the following:

• Establish policy for and approve current and long-range academic and facilities plans and programs and promote orderly growth and development of the community colleges within the district.
• Establish policies for and approve credit courses of instruction and educational programs.
• Establish academic standards, probation, dismissal and readmission policies, and graduation requirements not inconsistent with the minimum standards adopted by the board of governors.
• Employ and assign all personnel not inconsistent with the minimum standards adopted by the board of governors, establish employment practices, salaries, and benefits for all employees not inconsistent with the laws of the state.
• To the extent authorized by law, determine and control the district’s operational and capital outlay budgets . . . determine the need for elections for override tax levies and bond measures, and request that those elections be called.
• Manage and control district property. The governing board may contract for the procurement of goods and services as authorized by law.
• Establish procedures not inconsistent with minimum standards established by the board of governors to ensure faculty, staff, and students the opportunity to express their opinions at the campus level, to ensure that these opinions are given every reasonable consideration, to ensure the right to participate effectively in district and college governance, and to ensure the right of academic senates to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.
• Establish rules and regulations governing student conduct.
• Establish student fees as it is required to establish by law, and, in its discretion, fees as it is authorized to establish by law.
• In its discretion, receive and administer gifts, grants, and scholarships.
• Provide auxiliary services as deemed necessary to achieve the purposes of the community college.
• Within the framework provided by law, determine the district’s academic calendar, including the holidays it will observe.
• Hold and convey property for the use and benefit of the district. The governing board may acquire, by eminent domain, any property necessary to carry out the powers or functions of the district.

Board Policy 112 Duties and Responsibilities of the Board of Trustees (adopted August 27, 2007) delineates the duties and responsibilities of the board of trustees within the district and expresses their commitment to:

• Establish the mission of the District;
• Assure the development and implementation of short-term and long-term educational and facilities plans;
• Assure fiscal health and stability;
• Monitor institutional effectiveness and educational quality;
• Delegate power and authority to the Chancellor/Chief Executive Officer to effectively lead the district;
• Work respectfully with the Chancellor and the District/College faculty and staff;
• Refer suggestions and concerns to the Chancellor;
• Work respectfully with other Board members;
• Hire and evaluate the Chancellor;
• Advocate for and protect the District;
• Establish policies that implement the District mission and goals, and set prudent ethical and legal standards for college operations;
• Represent the public interest.

Board policies are available to all district employees and the public. Corresponding administrative regulations are available to all employees on MySite. New board policies, updates and revisions are acted upon at most monthly board meetings. On the bottom of each board policy is a notation of the policy history, when adopted and when revised. ²

Delegation of Authority to the Chancellor

California Education Code §70902(d) states that “the governing board of a community college district... may adopt a rule delegating the power to the district’s chief executive officer or any other employee or committee as the governing board may designate.” Acting in compliance of this statute the SOCCCD Board of Trustees adopted Board Policy (BP) 2100 Delegation of Authority to the Chancellor. This policy ensures that the Board of Trustees employs a qualified person as chancellor and chief administrative officer of the district. The chancellor has full authority and responsibility for the proper conduct of the business and education programs of the district.

The Board of Trustees specifically authorizes the Chancellor to perform, but is not limited to, the following functions:

1. To hire academic and classified employees for the district, subject to ratification by the Board.

2. To authorize and direct employees of the district to incur travel expenses, including but not limited to mileage to conduct district business, including conference travel, within the limits and budget requirements (CA Ed. Code, Section 87032).

3. To sign applications for funds and contracts for the district, subject to ratification by the Board (CA Ed. Code, Section 81655).

4. The Board hereby delegates to the Chancellor or his or her designee the authority to accept employee resignations on its behalf at any time. Resignations shall be deemed accepted by the board when accepted in writing by the Chancellor or his or her designee. If the resignation does not specify an effective date, the Chancellor or his or her designee shall fix an effective date for the resignation which shall be within 60 days. When accepted by the Chancellor or his or her designee, the resignation is final and may not be rescinded. All such resignations shall be forwarded to the Board for ratification at the next regular meeting (CA Ed. Code, Sections 87730 and 88201).

² Accreditation Draft Self Study Report, Standard IV

5. To establish and maintain the district’s purchasing procedure (CA Public Conract Code, Sections 20650, et seq, and CA Ed. Code, Sections 81641 et seq; Board Policy 3200).

Board Policy 2001 (Administrative Organization) further provides:

The Board of Trustees affirms its legal responsibility to adopt policies governing the District and its colleges. In so doing, it directs the Chancellor to implement those policies within an approved organizational structure (CA Ed. Code, Section 70902).

For the District and the colleges to be governed and administered in an effective manner, it is necessary that lines of communication be established within the organization so they allow for the orderly trans- action of business.

The Chancellor is authorized and responsible for organizing all District standing and ad hoc committees to assist in the operation of the District. Each College President is authorized and responsible for organizing college committees as needed to assist in college operations.

To support the board’s stated philosophy concerning internal administration, it is the policy of the board that all matters called to its attention by District personnel or by students shall be presented through the Chancellor. Conversely, the board shall direct appropriate matters through the Chancellor.

Delegation of Authority to the College President

As stated in Board Policy 2101 regarding Delegation of Authority to the College President, the President is “the Chief Executive Officer of the college . . . The President is responsible for implementing the colleges’ strategic plan and district policies. The President’s administrative organization shall be the established authority on campus and the College President is the final authority at the college level.”

According to the SOCCCD job description for the College President (ID #006):

Definition

PARTICIPATORY GOVERNANCE

Representatives of the California Community College Trustees, Chief Executive Officers of the California Community Colleges, and the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges recommended curtailing the use of the term “shared governance” in favor of the more precise terms defined by Education Code §70902 (b)(7), which requires the Board of Governors to enact regulations to “ensure faculty, staff, and students...the right to participate effectively in district and college governance.” Education Code §70902 (b)(7) further specifies “the right of academic senates to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.”

The Board of Governors adopted Title 5, California Code of Regulations, which defines the right of the Academic Senate, the Classified Senate, and the Associated Student Government (ASG) to participate effectively in District and College governance.

Title 5 procedures specify different levels of involvement for each body:

- The Academic Senate represents faculty;
- The Classified Senate represents classified staff; and

The meetings of the Academic Senate and ASG are open meetings pursuant to Government Code §54950 et. Seq. The meetings of the Classified Senate are also open meetings.

Saddleback College Strategic Planning Process

Recommended by the Consultation Council, 6/16/09
Approved by the President, 6/23/09
Revised, 7/24/09
Corrected 5/14/10
Purpose

Saddleback College’s strategic planning process is a comprehensive and collaborative tool for enabling the college to effectively achieve its mission and move towards its desired vision of the future. The purpose of this document is to outline Saddleback College’s continuous and integrated strategic planning process whereby the college collectively identifies and prioritizes college-wide goals and strategies, implements these goals and strategies, and measures and evaluates the outcomes. Planning improves the efficiency and effectiveness of the college and facilitates better-informed decisions about the allocation of college resources. A result of the strategic planning process is a Strategic Plan that provides the direction of the college for the next three years.

Saddleback College uses a bottom-up approach to strategic planning which both begins and ends with all instructional programs and student support and administrative service units on campus and with input from all campus constituent groups. Utilizing external and internal scans and other planning documents, decisions are made about the strategic directions of the college and the goals and strategies needed to move in those directions. Once a Strategic Plan is finalized, budgeting and other resource allocation decisions will be largely informed by the Strategic Plan, in conjunction with the needs of instructional programs and administrative units on campus as expressed in completed Program and Administrative Unit Reviews. The Strategic Plan will not predetermine decisions. Instead, it will provide a guide or framework within which decision making will take place.

Periodic evaluation and review is also an essential part of strategic planning at the college. Both the process and the resulting plans will be critically evaluated on an ongoing basis in order to ensure that the needs of the college and all its constituent groups are being met.
Planning Bodies

Below is a list of all the planning bodies on campus. A Strategic Planning Organization Chart can be found on page 6.

Consultation Council
For the purposes of developing the Strategic Plan, the Consultation Council serves as the college’s main strategic planning and recommending body. The Consultation Council is composed of all college constituent groups and includes:

Planning and Budget Steering Committee
A smaller committee serves as the Planning and Budget Steering Committee (PBSC) and will coordinate the Strategic Planning process, as well as the college budget process. This committee will report and make recommendations to the Consultation Council. The PBSC will include:

Strategic Planning Groups (SPGs)
Planning Terminology

Mission Statement: A broad description of what we do, for whom we do it, and our distinctive competencies. It describes the current purpose or philosophy of the college and our commitment to student learning and success.

Vision Statement: Describes what we want the college to look like, in ideal terms, in the future: both the results we would like to achieve and the characteristics we will need to possess in order to achieve those results. The Vision Statement provides direction and inspiration for the Strategic Plan.

Values: Statements of core priorities in the college’s culture that guide how we operate. They provide ways of choosing among competing priorities and guidelines.

Strategic Directions: A list of three to five statements that will determine the major directions or thrusts of planning for the next three years.

Goals: Statements of what the college hopes to achieve in the next three years in order to attain the agreed upon directions. Goals focus on outcomes or results, and are SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, and Timely).

Strategies: Statements of approach and methods for attaining goals and resolving specific issues. While the Strategic Directions and Goals are set for the entire three year period of the plan, strategies are more fluid and may be altered and reprioritized during the implementation period of the plan.

Steps in the Strategic Planning Process

The steps in the strategic planning process are listed below, followed by a detailed description of each step. A flow chart of the process can be found as Appendix E.

I. Mission Statement, Vision Statement, and Values
II. External Scan
III. Internal Scan
IV. Strategic Directions
V. Development of Goals
VI. Determination and Prioritization of Goals
VII. Development of Strategies
VIII. Determination and Prioritization of Strategies
IX. College-Wide Discussion of Proposed Strategic Plan
X. Approval of Strategic Plan
XI. Implementation of the Strategic Plan
XII. Annual Strategic Plan and Budget Workshop
XIII. Annual Assessment and Review

I. Mission Statement, Vision Statement, and Values
Yearly, the Consultation Council will review and revise, if necessary, the college’s mission in accordance with Board Policy 101 to ensure that the mission is in alignment with the South Orange County Community College District’s mission and with the functions of California community colleges as outlined in AB 1725.

Beginning in January each year, members of the Consultation Council will solicit input from their constituent groups. The Consultation Council will consider all suggestions, and a final version of the mission statement will be recommended to the President in April and sent to the Board for approval in May. Every third year, in conjunction with the strategic planning process, the college will revise the values and vision along with the mission.

II. External Scan
Every three years, the Office of Planning, Research and Grants will produce an external environmental scan that includes a current economic and demographic snapshot and a forecast for the next three years. This will consist of an executive summary of available data produced by the College Research Analyst. Reports/data to be included in this summary will include, at a minimum:
- Orange County Business Council (OCBC) Annual Workforce Indicators Report
- Economic Modeling Specialists, Inc. (EMSI) Reports
- Integrated Postsecondary Education Data Systems (IPEDS) Report
- VTEA Core Indicators Reports
III. Internal Scan
Every three years, the Office of Planning, Research and Grants will produce an internal scan using data from surveys administered to all students (conducted every two years), and all faculty, staff, and managers (conducted every three years). The will consist of executive summaries of each survey produced by the College Research Analyst.

In addition, the Educational Planning and Assessment Committee will produce a summary report of all Program and Administrative Unit Reviews.

IV. Strategic Directions
Utilizing the internal and external scans as well as other planning documents, every three years the Consultation Council will conduct a SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats) analysis using the form in Appendix C. Out of this analysis, the Council will develop 3-5 strategic directions consistent with the college’s mission, vision, and values. Strategic directions are fundamental to the college in order to achieve its mission and move towards its desired future.

V. Development of Goals
The strategic planning groups will develop goals for their policy areas based on the strategic directions identified above. These groups will use the college’s mission statement, vision statement, values, and the relevant planning documents listed previously in the development of these goals, which will serve to guide college decision making for the next three years.

The strategic planning groups will also solicit feedback from as wide a representation of the college community as possible as they develop the goals. This can be accomplished by obtaining recommendations from other college committees (see Appendix B) and subject matter experts in relation to specific Strategic Directions.

Once developed, the goals should be listed on the attached Strategic Planning Goals and Strategies Form (Appendix D) and then forwarded to the PBSC for review.

VI. Determination and Prioritization of Goals
The Planning and Budget Steering Committee (PBSC) will review the recommended goals to ensure that they are correctly constructed (as SMART goals) and submitted. If there are questions or concerns, PBSC will work with the specific SPG to resolve. The goals submitted by all of the SPGs will then be forwarded to the Consultation Council. The Consultation Council will review and revise the goals, determine which ones will be retained, prioritize them, and then return them to the SPGs for further action.
VII. Development of Strategies
The strategic planning groups will then develop specific strategies for the attainment of each of the prioritized goals. Once again, these groups will utilize the college’s mission statement, vision statement, values, and the relevant planning documents listed previously in the development of strategies, which will serve as recommendations for specific actions to be taken over the next three years.

The strategic planning groups will also solicit feedback from as wide a representation of the college community as possible as they develop the strategies. This can be accomplished by obtaining recommendations from other college committees (see Appendix B) and subject matter experts in relation to specific goals.

Once developed, the strategies will be added to the Strategic Planning Goals and Strategies Form (Appendix D) and then forwarded to the PBSC for review.

VIII. Determination and Prioritization of Strategies
PBSC will review the recommended strategies to ensure that they are in alignment with the goals and correctly submitted. If there are questions or concerns, PBSC will work with the specific SPG to resolve. The strategies submitted by all of the SPGs will then be forwarded to the Consultation Council. The Consultation Council will review and revise the strategies, determine which ones will be retained, prioritize them, and then combine them into a proposed Strategic Plan.

IX. College-Wide Discussion of Proposed Strategic Plan
The proposed Strategic Plan will then be distributed to all college constituent groups for feedback. A college-wide meeting will also be held for additional feedback. The Consultation Council will consider all of the feedback and revise accordingly.

X. Approval of Strategic Plan
At the beginning of the spring semester in the year prior to the effective date of the new plan, the Consultation Council will consider the final version of Strategic Plan for recommendation to the President.

Once the Strategic Plan is finalized and approved, it will be posted on the Saddleback College web site (http://www.saddleback.edu/gov/sp), along with a Summary Strategic Plan that includes only the Mission Statement, Vision, Values, Strategic Directions, and Goals. The Strategic Plan will also be distributed widely throughout the college and district.

XI. Implementation of the Strategic Plan
The implementation of the Strategic Plan will begin with budget decisions for the following academic year.
All resource allocation decisions will be largely informed by the Strategic Plan, in conjunction with the needs of instructional programs and administrative units on campus as expressed in completed Program and Administrative Unit Reviews. For example, all funding requests and allocation recommendations must include a justification which demonstrates an alignment between the Strategic Plan and a specific Program or Administrative Unit Review (see Appendix F).

All resource allocation requests will be submitted to the PBSC for review before forwarding to the Consultation Council for action recommendations.

XII. Annual Strategic Plan and Budget Workshop
During the fall in-service each year, the PBSC will conduct a strategic plan and budget workshop, presenting an overview of the approved strategic plan, outlining the different categories of budget allocations, and giving a breakdown of spending and available funds for the current academic year.

XIII. Annual Assessment and Review
On an annual basis, the PBSC will:
- Review resources and make recommendations for the college budget based on principles and practices set forth in the College Budget Development Manual and in alignment with the Strategic Plan.
- Notify the college community of funding appropriations and direction for expenditures in accordance with the Strategic Plan.
- Monitor budget and resources to ensure success of the strategic planning process.
- Complete an Annual Review of the Strategic Plan in the spring of each year, and make suggestions to the CC for reprioritizing of goals and strategies.

Each spring, the Consultation Council may reprioritize strategies based upon the Annual Review and an evaluation of the accomplishments during the year. The strategic directions and goals, however, will remain constant for the entire three-year period of the plan.
Planning Cycle

The entire planning cycle, including both the development and implementation of the plan, covers five academic years. The breakdown of this process is as follows:

Strategic Planning Groups – Focus and Composition

The Strategic Planning Groups (SPGs) are the strategic planning bodies responsible for developing recommended goals and strategies. Below is the area of focus for each SPG and their proposed composition. Given the importance of this work and the need for as much representation as possible, an individual can only serve on one of these groups. The chairs of each SPG will be determined by its membership, and need to commit to serving in this capacity for three years (or through one planning cycle).

ANTHROPOLOGY

Anthropology is a diverse and comprehensive discipline that investigates the biological and cultural life of human beings in all times and in all places. An anthropology degree provides students with an appreciation of other ways of life, different systems of belief and knowledge, and, perhaps most importantly, a better understanding of the world in which they live. The department of anthropology at Saddleback College is committed to teaching each of the four sub-fields of the discipline: cultural anthropology, archaeology, linguistic anthropology, and biological anthropology. The department also has a strong emphasis on the study of contemporary issues, such as ethnic and transnational identity, political conflict and social movements, human rights and indigenous rights, the cross-cultural making and meaning of race and gender, and the anthropological study of science. Saddleback College offers a wide range of anthropology courses taught both traditionally and online.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION STUDIES

The Child Development program at Saddleback College is a theory-based, hands-on early childhood education program that offers opportunities for students to deepen their understanding of children and families and the unique teaching and learning process that applies to the early years. The Child Development program offers options for professional development, professional certification and transfer to four year institutions. All options are designed to educate and prepare students to work with culturally diverse groups of children in schools, centers, and homes.

CROSS CULTURAL STUDIES

The Cross-Cultural Studies program is intended to provide an understanding and appreciation of diversity in the United States. The program is interdisciplinary in scope and explores the history and experiences of African Americans, Asian Americans, Chicanos(as)/Latinos(as), Middle Eastern Americans, and Native Americans. The course of study addresses such issues as individual cultural identity, relations between these cultures and the dominant culture of the United States, cross-cultural communication, and the contributions of diverse ethnic groups and cultures to a pluralistic society. The objective of the program is to foster students’ understanding of diversity as it relates to such topics as ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, and class.

ECONOMICS

Although divided into two main areas, all of economics pertains to one overarching problem: the ability of human wants to outstrip available resources. Topics covered under “macro” economics are national income measures, business cycles, unemployment, inflation, economic growth and development, monetary and fiscal policy, government debt: the United States banking system, and international trade and finance. “Micro” economics focuses on household, business, and some government decision-making.
Topics include the functioning of markets under perfect (supply-and-demand) and imperfect competition, antitrust and regulation, environmental policy, and the distribution of personal income and wealth.

EDUCATION
The Education department prepares students for a diverse range of teaching opportunities at a variety of levels. The program provides support for those just entering the field as well as to those who are already working in the classroom and community. Classes that meet the early fieldwork coursework requirements of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing can also be found in this department.

GEOGRAPHY
Geography is a holistic discipline that focuses on Earth’s processes and how humans adapt and manipulate their environment. Geographers study and examine the description of plant and animal life including man and his industries.

GIS
Geographic Information Systems (GIS) is an interdisciplinary field of study closely linked with geography, geology, environmental sciences, cartography, spatial analysis, and information technology. GIS has become an indispensable tool for spatial analysis used in many industries such as: public health, business, emergency services, public works, real estate and environmental concerns.

HISTORY
History studies the chronological records of significant events in the world and the United States including explanations of their causes. See the class schedule link on the left to find the wide range of courses that we offer.

Special topics include area studies and the issues of ethnicity and gender in political structures.

PSYCHOLOGY
The goal of the psychology program at Saddleback College is to provide a comprehensive introduction to the science of psychology for both students whose major is psychology and those taking psychology courses to fulfill general education requirements. We provide high quality instruction in courses which meet transfer requirements to many four year institutions. Further, personal growth and insight fostered through coursework in psychology will provide students with a repertoire of skills to relate to the culturally diverse world in which they live.

SOCIOLOGY
Sociology emphasizes the sociological perspective of human behavior, institutions and patterns of human interaction, origins and the nature of culture, the socialization processes, social forces and consequences of sociological change.
WOMEN’S and GENDER STUDIES
The Women’s and Gender Studies program at Saddleback College explores how women’s lives have been and continue to be affected by society’s values, traditions, and institutions. The curriculum examines how language and belief structures shape both women’s and men’s status in society and culture, and how the experiences of women differ by race, class, ethnicity, nationality, religion and sexual orientation.

In many instances, Women’s and Gender Studies courses provide the only information students may receive about the literary, artistic, scientific and political contributions of women throughout history. Students are encouraged to study, interpret and critique the experiences of women by examining the theories of feminist scholars and the contributions of writers, artists, social activists of varying backgrounds. In an effort to be as inclusive as possible, the curriculum stresses not only the acquisition of analytic skills, but also the integration of personal and social awareness.

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION (CSEA)

The California School Employees Association represents 230,000 dedicated, extraordinary school support staff throughout California. CSEA members perform a wide range of essential work in our public schools and community colleges, including security, food services, office and clerical work, school maintenance and operations, transportation, academic assistance and para-educator services, library and media assistance, computer services and more. CSEA was formed in 1927 when a determined group of Oakland custodians came together to support an elderly custodian who couldn’t afford to retire because public schools had no pension plan for such employees. This small group of custodians saw the need to gain rights and benefits for themselves and other school employees, and began the organization to achieve this goal. Today, CSEA continues to thrive as a member-run union, democratically controlled by member volunteers in more than 750 local chapters throughout the state. We are proud of our contributions toward California’s future and we strive everyday to carry out our mission to improve the lives of our members, students and communities.
FACULTY ASSOCIATION

The South Orange County Community College District Faculty Association is committed to the support of all faculty members in the district through the support and defense of our rights under the contractual agreements that this association negotiated with the Board of Trustees of this District. We endeavor to work with the Board of Trustees, both local college administrations, our campus communities, fellow district associations, and the general community of South Orange County.
