

WALL

Saddleback College Literary Journal

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Categories: POETRY, SHORT STORIES, PERSONAL ESSAYS, ART, AND PHOTOGRAPHY. Your piece may be selected for our beautiful, perfect bound, 120+ page literary journal. SUBMISSIONS ARE DUE FEBRUARY 11, 2013.

"One of the Best New Literary Magazines in the nation" – The Community College Humanities Association, 2001

Submission Guidelines

Each work must be an original, unpublished piece submitted by a Saddleback College student enrolled Spring 2012; Summer 2012; Fall 2012; or Spring 2013. Attach a completed submission form to each entry. You may submit a piece in each category (including artwork and photography), but only one will be published. See submission form on back after reading these guidelines. For questions, contact Professor Gina Shaffer at gshaffer@saddleback.edu.

Written Work:

Short stories and personal essays should be 1,700 words maximum (approx. 5-6 pages). Type must be left-justified and double-spaced. Poetry should be 32 lines maximum and lines of type should be single-spaced. Reasonable layout preferences (spacing, centering, etc) are allowed for poetry. All poetry, short stories, and personal essays should be typed in Times New Roman 12-point font easily readable for a scanner (no all-italics) and copies should be of high quality. Remove name from written work. Use title as header so we can identify your work. Written work may be edited by magazine staff for length or house style.

To submit written work, you may choose one of the following methods:

- Hand-deliver or mail two copies of written work to Professor Gina Shaffer, WALL, c/o Liberal Arts Division, Learning Resource Center 344, Saddleback College, 28000 Marguerite Parkway, Mission Viejo, CA 92692-3635.
- Submit electronically by scanning in the submission form and sending it along with the written work as a Microsoft Word document to the following email address: saddlebackWALL@gmail.com

Artwork and Photography:

Please be specific in describing your piece on the submission form, especially if the title is ambiguous. Indicate the medium and size of the original artwork.

To submit artwork and photography, you may choose one of the following methods:

- Hand-deliver the artwork or a digital image of it on disk at 300 dpi in TIFF (preferred) or JPEG format along with submission form to Professor Gina Shaffer, WALL, Liberal Arts Division, Learning Resource Center 344. Names and titles may be applied to the back of photos and artwork, and on disk labels. You don't need to staple or affix the submission form to the original art or photos. Place materials in an envelope or protective covering.
- Submit in the form of a digital photo at 300 dpi in TIFF (preferred) or JPEG format and send it to the following email address: saddlebackWALL@gmail.com along with scanned copy of submission form.

