Welcome to The Center for Instructional Design & Distance Education (The CIDDE)

The CIDDE provides instruction, advisement, analysis, professional development and support of faculty, staff and administrators in the areas of online course management and technology.

We provide creative and innovative ways to take your technological skills to the next level and help you make online classes come alive!

---

Getting Started Online - Information for Faculty - Gives you information you’ll need to get started online.

New Faculty - Welcome to Saddleback College! This link gives you some crucial information and technology resources here at Saddleback.

---

Welcome to Saddleback College! This link gives you some crucial information and technology resources here at Saddleback.

---