Dear Professor Rosenberg,

In the Monday FYI for yesterday, we forgot an important announcement!

We are having a special visit from Rafael Meza
Senior Director of Transfer Enrollment
Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Admissions
University of Arizona
TOMORROW!

LRC 314 4:00-5:00 Feb. 18
Right after the PTK meeting

http://www.honors.arizona.edu/
Especially for Honors Students!

The University of Arizona is an excellent school overall, but is exceptionally highly ranked in the following areas:

- Management Information Systems
- Anthropology
- Entrepreneurship
- Nursing
- Geology
- Public Entrepreneurship
- Sociology
- Communications
From the Dean of the Honors College:

“The Honors College is a special destination on campus, an intimate community at the center of a research-intensive university with a vibrant campus life. This is a unique place where scholars come together around ideas and make lasting connections with other like-minded individuals, including our prestigious faculty and dedicated staff. The Honors College will expand your horizons and help you prepare for your career through engaging Honors classes, personalized advising, funded research, study abroad opportunities, community service, and social and cultural activities that nourish students’ quests for new knowledge, social responsibility and alliances.”
