Dear Alannah,

Professors of the Year

Every year, Saddleback College students choose three professors, one full-time, one part-time, and one from the Emeritus Institute, to honor as Professor of the Year.

This year the honors go to biology professor Dr. Karah Street, psychology professor Dr. Bob Matthews, and, at the Emeritus Institute, Dr. Gerald M. Binder.

To find out more about these great professors, check out the links above to their faculty pages and also the award announcement on President Burnett’s Gaucho Gazette.
