Dear Alannah,

Welcome back from a wet weekend.

If we're lucky, summer will come back before the Fall semester starts.

SADDLEBACK 101 FOR FRESHMEN: Lecture #9: Parking

We'll keep this simple.
We'll just do a little warning and myth-busting.

- There is no "grace period." Any car parked on campus needs to have a valid permit or be in a paid-up metered spot.

- Tempers get hot in the first weeks -- especially if the weather is hot -- and arguments do break out over parking spaces. Keep your cool.
o Come early. Sunrise is pretty.
o Park on lower campus where there's less strife, even if your classes are in BGS, SM, LRC, or HS.
o Walk uphill in comfortable shoes.

- The worst parking day, especially on upper campus, is Wednesday. The Nursing Department and all its students are on campus and not spread out over the county in various hospitals on that day. Come extra-early on Wednesdays. Dawn is nice. (Dawn is earlier than sunrise.)

- Yes, you get a real ticket for parking in a STAFF space.

- While we're on the subject, all tickets issued by Campus Police are real tickets. All arrests by Campus Police are real arrests. Basically, the Campus Police are real police. For those who need proof, consider this: surplus military equipment isn't allowed to go just anywhere.
