Only Five More Opportunities to Attend the MANDATORY Pre-Transfer Workshop for Fall 2016!

- W Oct 14 at 4:30 - 5:30 pm
- T Oct 20 at 5:30 - 6:30 pm
- W Oct 21 at 12:00 - 1:00 pm
- T Oct 27 at 5:30 - 6:30 pm
- W Oct 28 at 12:00 - 5:30 pm

If you don't attend one of these workshops, you may lose your eligibility for honors transfer in Fall 2016.

You may also simply make mistakes that will cost you that transfer. We're not being arbitrary or mean about this, but you really must come! We began requiring these workshops a couple of years ago in response to failed transfers, and transfer rates have risen.

IVC/SC Symposium & SCCUR Rehearsals

You offer your research, we help you share.

We'll hold rehearsals for students whose research is accepted to conferences. Students who want to rehearse being session moderators will have an opportunity at these times too.

- W Oct 28 at 2:00 p.m.
- F Oct 30 at 9:30 a.m.
- F Oct 30 at 12:00 noon

Location TBA.

Other opportunities will be offered in November for those seeking to present at SCCUR.

Spring 2016 Dates & Deadlines

- Your registration appointment will be visible via your MySite portal: Oct. 26
- Priority registration for Certificate-Track Honors students in good standing: Nov. 5
- The Spring 2016 schedule is now visible here.

Start looking at this schedule early!
The college is moving to a new "block schedule." Some departments have moved already, and some haven't. Building a schedule may be a bit more challenging this time if you take courses in multiple academic divisions (a "division" is, e.g., Liberal Arts: a group of related departments under a dean).

- Course offering times have changed in many departments, but not all. The greatest number of changes are in the departments of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Division.
- Course overlaps may be more frequent than in previous semesters for students taking courses in multiple divisions.
