Dear Reader,

The Jack Kent Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship is the largest and most generous of its kind.

Each year 85 students have most of their educational expenses covered with awards of up to $40,000 per year for the two or three years it will take the recipient to earn a bachelor's degree.

Over the past two years, three Saddleback College students have been recipients of this award. If you're going to transfer next year, maybe you'll be a fourth in three years!

Details on eligibility and selection criteria are here: Jack Kent Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship

Application deadline: December 15, 2015

Faculty representative of JKCF at Saddleback College:

Kevin O'Connor, Ph.D.
Dean of Liberal Arts
This very brief FYI is brought to you barely in time by the National Collegiate Honors Council Conference in Chicago November 11 - 15.

I have to go pack. The office will be closed Thursday. Be good while I'm gone. Hugs to all.
