The Saddleback College Honors Program SLOs Support the Program’s Purpose:
To nurture and govern the Saddleback College Honors Program in its mission to “develop exceptional talent, ability, and scholarship in highly motivated students of all majors.”

Course Content
Demonstrate attainment of the student learning outcomes specified for the regular section of the course.
Explain the techniques and methods appropriate to the discipline.
Compare and contrast issues, debates, or approaches appropriate to the discipline.
Synthesize complex information from primary sources, peer-reviewed articles, and other scholarly sources.
Develop an argument or project and defend or present it in a way appropriate to the discipline.
Apply higher-order thinking skills to a range of topics and issues related to the course content.

Critical Thinking
Select, evaluate, and organize credible evidence to support arguments related to the discipline.
Solve problems using strategies and methods appropriate to the discipline.
Identify and explain standards of proof, quality, and/or success in the discipline.

Communication
In writing, express ideas and concepts precisely and persuasively.
Orally, express ideas and concepts precisely and persuasively.
Fluently employ writing conventions suitable to expository and research work in the discipline.
Fluently employ symbolic conventions, notation, and syntax appropriate for problem-solving in the discipline.

Integrity and Ethics
For Certificate-Track students, practice civic engagement through service activities.
Practice appropriate professional standards of behavior.
Practice appropriate standards related to respect for intellectual property.
Exhibit disciplined work habits as an individual.

Project Management
For Certificate-Track students, maintain accurate records, keep appointments, complete paperwork, and manage the work necessary to be in good standing for transfer.
Apply discipline-based and/or cross-discipline-based knowledge to design a problem-solving strategy in a research and/or creative capstone project.
Conceive, plan, and execute a high-quality research and/or creative capstone project.