Registration for Saddleback College Summer Classes Begins April 13th

Mission Viejo, CA – Registration for Saddleback College summer classes begins April 13th for continuing students and May 3rd for new and former students. Students must have an appointment time and date to register. The schedule for the Summer 2010 Semester is now available for viewing at http://www.saddleback.edu/cs/. Students are encouraged to register early, as classes are expected to fill up quickly.

This summer, two eight-week sessions and two six-week sessions are being offered. Dates for eight-week classes are:
May 24th - July 18th and June 21st - August 15th

Dates for six-week classes are:
May 24th - July 4th and July 6th - August 15th.

“Saddleback College’s rigorous and stimulating academic programs are taught by a faculty renowned for its expertise and experience,” said Dr. Tod A. Burnett, President of Saddleback College. “Our students have access to more than 300 degrees and certificates to help them define and reach their educational, professional, and personal goals.”

Applications for the summer semester are currently being accepted online through www.saddleback.edu. Applicants must have an email address and will receive registration information within one business day after applying for admission.

For more information on applying and registering for classes, please call the Saddleback College’s Office of Admissions and Records at (949) 582-4555 or visit http://www.saddleback.edu/admissions/.
