Saddleback College’s KSBR FM to Host Concert Featuring “Morning Breeze” Artists

Mission Viejo, CA – Saddleback College radio station KSBR (88.5 FM) will host an intimate evening concert under the stars highlighting its popular “Morning Breeze” specialty show at Dana Marina Center courtyard in Dana Point Harbor on Sunday, September 6th at 6:00 p.m. Tickets are $55.00 and include beverages and a sumptuous dinner buffet with dishes from local restaurants including What a Dish Bistro, Mahé, Two Guys Grilling, and It’s All About the Cake.

Fewer than 100 tickets will be sold for the distinctive event, which will feature artists regularly played on the station’s “Morning Breeze” show, including world-renowned violinist Scarlet Rivera, pianist Kori Linae Carothers, New Age Reporter Piano Album of the Year nominee Denise Young, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist John Luttrell, and New Age Reporter Album of the Year winner Jeff Oster.

The “Morning Breeze” is KSBR’s most popular specialty show and features an eclectic blend of electronic and acoustic world and new age music on Saturdays from 5:00 to 9:00 a.m. and Sunday from 5:00 a.m. to noon. Tickets to the event may be purchased at www.KSBR.org. For more information, please call KSBR’s membership services office at (949) 582-4501.

KSBR (88.5 FM) is a commercial-free contemporary jazz and community information station serving Orange County and is broadcasted from Saddleback College. KSBR’s primary format is contemporary jazz and offers weekend specialty shows featuring musical styles such as world/new age, techno, reggae, folk, Latin, jazz, and blues.

Located in Mission Viejo, Saddleback College provides quality higher education and training to the greater south Orange County community. Having served more than 500,000 students since 1968, Saddleback College offers over 300 degree and certificate programs to help students reach their personal, career, and educational goals. For more information, please visit www.saddleback.edu.

###