Second Session of Eight-Week Classes Begin March 21st at Saddleback College

Mission Viejo, CA – Several in-class and online courses are still available for the second session of eight-week classes, which begins on March 21st at Saddleback College. A complete list of open sessions is available at http://www.saddleback.edu/cs/second8week.html. Registration is open to all Saddleback and Irvine Valley College students.

Dr. Tod A. Burnett, President of Saddleback College, stated, “Saddleback College strives to provide classes that fit into our students’ schedules and the eight-week courses give busy students an option that is shorter than the traditional 16-week courses.”

Eight-week classes are available in transferrable subjects, CTE, and basic skills courses. Available courses include History 20 - Ethnic Cultures of the United States, Psychology 30 - Social Psychology, several Sociology courses, and Automotive 226 - Automotive Service Consultant.

Classes are $26 per unit run through the end of the spring semester on May 19th. The eight-week classes provide the same number of instruction hours as the full-semester, 16-week courses.

Located in Mission Viejo, Saddleback College provides quality higher education and training to the greater south Orange County community. Having served more than 500,000 students since 1968, Saddleback College offers more than 300 degree and certificate programs to help students reach their personal, career, and educational goals.
